

2nd All-Ireland
Pine Marten Symposium
14th-15th October 2016

AGENDA - DAY ONE

09:00 REGISTRATION

09:30 Welcome - Cllr Gillan Fitzpatrick, Chairperson of Newry Mourne and Down District Council

09:50-10:40 Management

Allan Bantick (Cairngorm Wildlife) - Living in a Changing Countryside

Jenny MacPherson (The Vincent Wildlife Trust) - Back from the Brink: the Pine Marten Recovery Project in Wales

Johnny Birks (Swift Ecology) - Boxing Clever: Trials of Pine Marten Den Boxes in Galloway Forest

10:40-11:20 TEA BREAK

11:20-12:20 Management issues

Kevin Sadler (National Association of Regional Game Councils) - Using Electrical Poultry Netting to Reduce Predation at Pheasant Pens

Aileen O'Sullivan (Coillte) - Coillte, Forestry and the Pine Marten

Claire Poirson (Athenanature) - CMNF Restoration Plan for the Wildcat and Pine Marten in Nord-Pas-de-Calais Région

12:20-13:30 LUNCH

13:30-14:40 Interactions

Josh Twining (Queen's University, Belfast) - Seasonal Dietary Variation of the Pine Marten in Northern Ireland

Colin Lawton (National University of Ireland, Galway) - Further Evidence of the Impact of Pine Marten on Irish Grey Squirrel Populations

Emma Sheehy (Aberdeen University) - An Update on Pine Marten and Squirrel Behaviour in Scotland

Denise O'Meara (Waterford Institute of Technology) - A Citizen Science Survey of Pine Marten on Abbeyleix bog, Co. Laois

14:40-15:10 TEA BREAK

15:10-16:10 Distribution and Population

David Tosh (Centre for Environmental Data and Recording Ireland) - The Distribution of Pine Marten in Northern Ireland: a Citizen Science Survey

Declan O'Mahony (Agri-Food and Biosciences Institute) - Variation in Pine Marten Density and Abundance: How abundant are Pine Marten in Ireland?

Catherine O'Reilly (Waterford Institute of Technology) - Pine Marten in Portlaw woods: a Decade of DNA Data

16:10-16:30 Sum up and close/discussion

EVENING ENTERTAINMENT 7:30PM - LATE

Thanks to the Department of Arts, Heritage and the Gaeltacht's 2016 Co-operation with Northern Ireland Funding scheme.

An Roinn Ealaíon, Oidhreacht,
Gnóthai Réigiúnacha, Tuaithe agus Gaeltachta
Department of Arts, Heritage,
Regional, Rural and Gaeltacht Affairs

Irish Dancing and Traditional Irish Music Session with the children from Ring of Gullion Traditional Arts Partnership

Traditional Arts Partnership is a community based collaboration promoting and celebrating Traditional Arts in the South Armagh area.

(Visit their Facebook page)

Una Walsh, local historian - An introduction to the Cultural Heritage of south Armagh

Una has a wealth of knowledge about south Armagh, from the formation of Camlough Mountain 400 million years ago, the Ring Dyke 56 million years ago, through Mesolithic, Neolithic Iron age, Bronze age, early and late Medieval and Christian Heritage.

(Find out more about Una here)

Traditional Irish Music Session and Story telling with Terry Conlon and Padraig Carragher from the band Bothán

Bothán are an Irish Trad/Folk band from South Armagh. The band has a distinct Plantxy/Bothy Band feel to their music and covers a wide range of musical genres.

(Watch them perform here)

On display throughout the symposium will be craft work created as part of the Ring of Gullion and Cooley Red Squirrel Group's Red Squirrel Fun Day workshops.

There will also be a display of posters created by local school children about the pine marten as part of a locally run competition for the symposium.

The ROGHA shop will be open in Tí Chulainn of work from the local craft group ROGHA is a group of artists and makers all based in South Armagh. www.ringofgullion.org/shop/

2nd All-Ireland
Pine Marten Symposium
14th-15th October 2016

AGENDA - DAY TWO

- 09:30 REGISTRATION
- 09:45 Welcome - Des Murphy, Chair of the Ring of Gullion Landscape Partnership Board
- 09:50-12:20 Den Box Practical
Classroom Discussion
Den Box Site Visit to Slieve Gullion Forest Park
- 12:20-13:30 LUNCH

If anyone is staying in the area over the weekend, they may also fancy the following:

Country Ladies of The Moment
Saturday 15th October 2016

The exciting Live Country Music Show of the year with Ireland's top female vocalists and their live band.

(Visit the Tí Chulainn website for more details)

An Introduction to Geomythography
with Stuart McHardy
Sunday 16th October 16:00-18:00

The Ring of Gullion team welcome to south Armagh Stuart McHardy to provide us with an introduction to Geomythography. Stuart McHardy is a storyteller and author of thirty books. He is a published poet, an accomplished musician/singer and has been lecturing on Scottish History and Folklore for Edinburgh University's Centre for Open Learning since the early 1990s.

(Learn more and book this event here)